ABOUT

AIM

The primary goal of the Staff Week is to foster knowledge-sharing and the exchange of best practices through engaging discussions and interactive sessions.

This year's topics focus on mental health and stress in the workplace, as well as fears and stress related to student mobility.

Additionally, the event provides a unique opportunity to strengthen existing collaborations and establish new partnerships.

COST

Participants are expected to cover their own travel, accommodation, and excursion expenses through Erasmus+ or other funds.

The University of Zadar will cover the costs of coffee breaks, two lunches, a guided city tour, information kits, and certificates of attendance.

TERMS OF PARTICIPATION

- Participation is limited to two people per institution.
- The language of training is English.
- There is no registration fee.
- The number of participants is limited to a maximum of 50.

APPLICATION

Application procedure consists of Mobility Agreement and on-line application form. The application deadline is February 10, 2025.

Participants will be selected on the basis of the relevance of their field of interest and main responsibilities to the main topics as well as the quality of their Mobility Agreements. The DRAFT versions of the Mobility Agreement can be downloaded here.

The Mobility Agreement must be sent to the following e-mail: erasmus@unizd.hr by February 10, 2025.

On-line application form can be found here.

HOW TO GET TO ZADAR

BY PLANE

Zadar Airport: Located in Zemunik, approximately 12 km from Zadar, it offers flights to various European cities. For the latest flight schedules and destinations, visit the official website: www.zadar-airport.hr.

Airport to City Transport:

- Bus: A one-way ticket to the main bus station or city center costs €5.
- Taxi: The fare to Zadar city center is approximately €25.

BY BUS

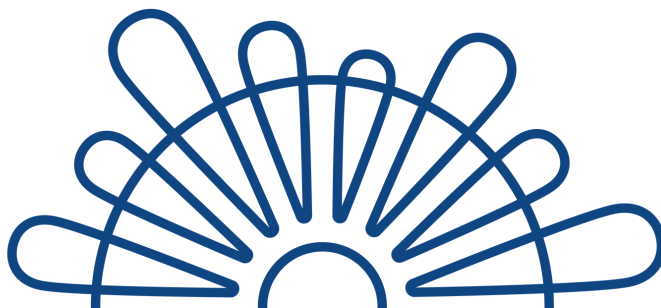

Buses connect Zadar with different cities in Europe. The address of the Zadar Bus Station, LIBURNIJA d.o.o. is: Ante Starčevića 1, 23 000 Zadar, Croatia and the web page: <https://liburnija-zadar.hr/>.

BY FERRY

The ferry port Gaženica connects Zadar with Ancona (Italy) and some ferry ports on Croatian islands and harbours. Information about schedules and destinations can be found on the official web sites of Jadrolinija <https://www.jadrolinija.hr/>.

BY CAR

You can use one of two possible roads: A1 Highway from the direction of Zagreb/Rijeka – exit Zadar Zapad (Zadar West) or from the direction of Split – exit Zadar Istok (Zadar East) or DC8 Adriatic road. More information about the situation on the highways and maps can be found on <https://www.hak.hr/>.

RESTAURANTS & CAFES

Zadar offers a variety of restaurants where you can enjoy traditional Croatian dishes, as well as Italian and international cuisine. For more affordable options, you can visit pizzerias and fast-food establishments.

If you need more suggestions, please visit the website of the Zadar Tourist Board.

GOOD TO KNOW:

- Tap water is safe to drink.
- The official currency in Croatia is EURO. Foreign currency can be exchanged at banks, exchange offices, post offices, and most tourist agencies and hotels.
- Most restaurants and shops accept credit cards, but fast-food outlets and cafes typically accept only cash.
